

Self Help

The Court provides free self-help assistance to both landlords and tenants that are not represented by attorneys. Self-Help staff can answer questions about court processes and procedures and provide you with educational materials, pleading packets (including samples) and referrals to local nonprofit organizations that may be able to offer you legal representation. Please be aware that Court staff does not provide legal advice and cannot represent you in court

Self Help General Information

<https://www.sb-court.org/self-help>

Landlord Tenant (Unlawful Detainer) Self Help Information

<https://www.sb-court.org/self-help/landlord-tenant>